THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE BAND

WASHINGTON, D.C.

COLLEGIATE SYMPOSIUM

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

FEBRUARY 10 – 12, 2017

The United States Air Force Band's Collegiate Symposium offers a unique opportunity for talented college musicians to immerse themselves with one of the world's finest professional wind ensembles.This three-day workshop encompasses a variety of events to enhance musical growth and learning: clinics, masterclasses, rehearsals and round table discussions. The weekend culminates in a live streamed public performance with The U.S. Air Force Concert Band on Sunday, Feb. 12 at 3 p.m. at the Rachel M. Schlesinger Concert Hall and Arts Center, Alexandria, Virginia.

Participants are sure to enjoy this once-in-a-lifetime musical experience. The Symposium is free—no tuition or fees. Lodging will be provided, however, the selected attendees are responsible for their own transportation.

APPLICATION INFORMATION

The Symposium is open to wind, percussion, harp and double bass players who are studying music in college and are citizens or legal permanent residents of the United States.
Previous attendees are not eligible.

For consideration, applicants must submit the following:

1. A resume, including the applicant's name, instrument, address with zip code, telephone number, email address and school.
2. An audio (digital) recording of two short excerpts. The repertoire of required excerpts for each instrument is available for download at www.usafband.af.mil/collegiatesymposium.
3. Application materials must be submitted electronically by Dec. 1, 2016 to:

USAFBandCollegiateSymposium@gmail.com

www.usafband.af.mil/collegiatesymposium