

CRITICAL ACCLAIM

Top professionals; bandleaders, singers, musicians, recording engineers and radio personalities talk about the Airmen of Note.

COUNT BASIE: “It doesn’t matter what kind of bag you put them in, jazz or dance, the Airmen of Note always comes out swinging. This is one band you won’t want to miss.”

RANDY BRECKER: “It was great performing with the Airmen of Note, a band of great precision and musicianship.”

MICHAEL BRECKER: “What a band! It was a real pleasure playing with such a wonderful group of musicians. I hope we can do it again.”

BOB HOPE: “No one swings harder than the Airmen of Note except for me trying to hit a golf ball.”

JOE WILLIAMS: “The Airmen of Note is an absolute gas. They knock me out. I’ve never had more fun working with a big band.”

CLARK TERRY: “Now that’s the way it’s supposed to sound. You guys are fabulous, but then that’s what I expected. It’s great to play with pros.”

HENRY MANCINI: “I consider it a privilege that the Airmen of Note is playing some of my arrangements.”

NANCY WILSON: “The Airmen of Note are a gas! What more needs to be said?”

LOU RAWLS: “To coin a phrase from one of my albums: Too much!”

BILLY MAYHUGH: (WMAL - Washington, D.C. Radio personality) “I’ve been following the Airmen of Note for years and they just keep getting better. I’m sure glad they call Washington home.”
