Air Force's Premier Jazz Ensemble on National Tour

WHO/WHAT: The Airmen of Note, the premier jazz ensemble of the United States Air Force, will perform a free concert at the Interlochen Bowl at the Interlochen Center for the Arts in Interlochen, Mich., on Wednesday, June 25 at 8 p.m. as part of its national "Celebrating Independence" tour. This 16-day tour will take the band through Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, and Illinois. Tickets are not required for this concert.

Stationed at Joint Base Anacostia-Bolling in Washington, D.C., the Airmen of Note is one of six performing groups that comprise The U.S. Air Force Band. Created in 1950 to continue the tradition of Major Glenn Miller's Army Air Corps dance band, the group consists of 18 active duty Airmen musicians including one vocalist.

WHEN: June 25, 2014 at 8 p.m.

WHERE: Interlochen Center for the Arts, Interlochen Bowl, 4000 Michigan 137, Interlochen, Mich.

INTERVIEW OPTIONS:

Members of the Airmen of Note are available for in-studio or phone-in interviews; live performances on local morning shows including bumpers and teasers; and coverage before, during and after concerts. They can perform acoustically or with sound reinforcement utilizing their professional sound engineer. To set up interviews and/or request more information, contact Master Sgt. Matthew Irish (listed above).

BACKGROUND ON THE AIRMEN OF NOTE:

Through the years, the Airmen of Note has presented its own brand of big band jazz as well as more contemporary forms of jazz to audiences via annual tours across the United States, deployments around the world and local performances throughout metropolitan Washington, D.C. Each year, the Jazz Heritage Series is broadcast to millions over National Public Radio, independent jazz radio stations, satellite radio services and the Internet. In addition, the "Note" produces and delivers recorded music to millions of fans worldwide each year through hundreds of media outlets. One of the group's recent holiday recordings, "Cool Yule," reached #2 on the JazzWeek jazz chart.

As part of The U.S. Air Force Band, these Airmen musicians honor those who have served, inspire American citizens to heightened patriotism and service, and positively impact the global community on behalf of the U.S. Air Force and the United States of America. The excellence demonstrated by these Airmen musicians is a reflection of the excellence carried out by Airmen stationed around the globe.
